Portrait & Branding Photographer

Los Angeles, CA

Michael Cruzada

I make portraits.

I'm based in Los Angeles and I work with professionals, entrepreneurs, creatives, and brands who need imagery that actually represents them — headshots, branding sessions, graduation portraits, and event coverage.

The work varies. The approach doesn't. I want you to look at your photos and recognize yourself — not a cleaned-up version, not a corporate placeholder. You.

My process is built around making people comfortable. Everything else follows naturally.

Based in Los Angeles. Available for travel.

Portraits that work for you.

Whether you're refreshing your professional image, building a brand from scratch, or getting your whole team on the same page — I create portraits that make the right impression.

Clean, consistent, and tailored to how you actually want to be seen.

HEADSHOTS

Professional portraits with clean lighting and natural confidence.

BRANDING

Portraits for creatives, entrepreneurs, and modern businesses.

GRADUATION

Milestone portraits that mark where you've been and where you're going.

EVENTS

Professional event coverage focused on atmosphere, people, and storytelling.
