ABOUT THE WORK

Real Moments. Honest Storytelling.

---

My wedding photography style is built around real emotion, movement, and storytelling. I focus on the quiet moments, the family energy, the joy, the nerves, the details, and the celebration.

My goal is to photograph the day in a way that feels honest, beautiful, and personal — images that become part of a family's permanent history.

For Couples Who Want the Day to Feel Real.

Not every wedding needs to feel staged. Some couples want something personal, simple, emotional, and true to who they are.

I photograph intimate weddings, courthouse weddings, elopements, and family-centered ceremonies with care and attention to the real moments happening around the couple.

WHY WORK WITH ME

I Know How to Read the Moment.

---

My background in dance, events, and documentary photography helps me move through important moments naturally. I know how to notice emotion, timing, movement, and connection without interrupting the day.

I photograph weddings with respect because these images become part of a family's history.
